

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
McKenzie Swisshelm
Greenleaf HR
661.695.5141
marketing@greenleaf-HR.com

GREENLEAF HR TO ATTEND LARGEST CANNABIS BUSINESS EVENT

Greenleaf HR will exhibit at NCIA's #CannaBizSummit in San Jose, California

Bakersfield, CA (Jul. 16, 2019) -- Greenleaf HR recently announced their participation as an exhibitor at the National Cannabis Industry Association Annual Summit (#CannaBizSummit) July 22nd through July 24th, 2019. Not only will they be exhibiting, featuring the latest in HR technology and services, but they'll also offer complimentary one-on-one HR meetings with one of their SHRM certified professionals.

"This is an opportunity unlike any other. We're offering valuable HR knowledge without the commitment," said Jason Thomasy, VP of Business Development at Greenleaf HR. "We have the back of every cannabis business owner out there. From payroll to compliance, and back-office to banking; we're excited to share our twenty years of experience with attendees."

NCIA's annual cannabis conference and tradeshow, #CannaBizSummit returns to San Jose in its sixth year bringing together the cannabis industry's best and brightest minds.

To learn more about Greenleaf HR and their services visit www.greenleaf-HR.com or come by Booth #1133 during the NCIA show July 22nd through July 24th.

About Greenleaf HR

Greenleaf HR is a leading cannabis human resource management company with headquarters in Central California. Today, Greenleaf HR serves the human resource management needs of cannabis companies throughout California. Their mission is to deliver tailored human resource, benefit, payroll, safety and workers' compensation business solutions to cannabis businesses looking for a competitive advantage in their marketplace. For more information, please visit www.greenleaf-hr.com.

